J. O. MCGRATH.

FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

I hereby announce to the voters of Seward County that I will be an independent candidate at the November election for the office of County Attorney.

This announcement is made in the urgent conviction of many of the better citizens of the county, without regard to political affiliation. Democrats, Republicans and socialists have fastened on my taking this step.
This is not a political office, but one in which the public should be interested.

I was County Attorney of this county two years and was appointed Assistant Attorney General for this county in January 1912.

The people of this county know my conception of the duties of a county attorney, and if the people will elect me, I promise a same, safe and practical administration of the affairs connected with that office, in compliance with the laws of the state.

Very respectfully,
V. H. GRINSTEAD.
